

Blackbird

Celtic Music
with
Bob DeMarco & Rachel Clark

Rachel Clark and Bob DeMarco, members of the Celtic band Wind that Shakes the Barley, have performed together for many years throughout Vermont. As Blackbird they present a lively musical mix on flute, penny whistle, fiddle, accordion, guitar, citterni, piano and vocals. Jigs, reels, hornpipes, polkas, waltzes are all performed as the traditional music of Ireland, Scotland, Brittany and Scandinavia.

Bob's mom came originally from County Limerick, Ireland and inspired his love for Celtic music. When he was a boy, she frequently sang in Gaelic and loved to play the fiddle and piano. Bob plays the fiddle, guitar, bouzouki and piano.

Music from Ireland, Scotland, Brittany, and Scandinavia for concert, special occasions, weddings, parties.

Call:

802 747 8664
802 763 8004

E mail:

Music@blackbirdvt.com

Web:

<http://blackbirdvt.com>

Rachel comes from a family rich in music. Both her mom and dad play professionally as classical musicians. Rachel lived in Sweden as a child and was drawn to Celtic music in her teens. She plays the Irish flute, penny whistle, accordion and piano.

Discography

- ❖ Good Morning, Good Night - A Children's Collection
- ❖ Blackbird Sampler

with Wind that Shakes the Barley

- ❖ Lough Rask
- ❖ Wind in the Sails

Bob also performs on

- ❖ Fortune Turns the Wheel
- ❖ Celtic Field

Otter Creek Music Productions
Florence, VT

Blackbird

Celtic Music

with

Bob DeMarco & Rachel Clark

